

Society for Healthcare Volunteer Leaders

Dear SHVL Member,

Happy New Year!

I hope you had a wonderful holiday season and are making plans to attend our educational conference, March 10-12, 2022 in Nashville, TN.

The SHVL board is working continuously with the Renaissance hotel to stay up to date concerning COVID restrictions and guidelines per the city, state and hotel. Your safety and health along with the SHVL Board and presenters is of our utmost concern.

The education committee is working with the hotel staff to ensure optimal social distancing and other safety precautions in all spaces.

Some planned precautions: (this list is not exhaustive as we are continually updating with area protocols)

- Chairs will be spaced in all meeting venues to provide a safe distance for all.
- As leaders of healthcare organizations, we will follow the CDC recommendations for healthcare workers and indoor large gatherings (Face coverings should be worn at all times except when eating or drinking).
- Hand sanitizing stations will be placed throughout meeting space area.
- Meals will be plated or boxed, and no buffet-style meals will be offered.
- Meeting spaces will be disinfected during breaks with an electrostatic disinfectant.
- Hotel tables are designed to be linen-less which allows for quick disinfecting.
- Touchless coffee stations and hand sanitizer pumps at all food and beverage breaks
- Sanitizer wipes available in meeting rooms

If an attendee should begin experiencing symptoms we would ask they refrain from attending any sessions and notify me, Michelle McCann, at michelle.mccann@bmhcc.org. Be assured, your privacy would be respected, and no information would be shared with other attendees. We would only use this information to seek hotel guidelines and protocols and to provide assistance you might need.

The Renaissance Hotel has an extensive safety protocol for their properties that can be reviewed by visiting this link <https://whattoexpect.marriott.com/bnash>.

If you have any questions or concerns please reach out to us at shvl.email@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Michelle McCann, President
